

Central Elementary School Title I, Part A Parent and Family Engagement Plan 2018-2019

I, Joseph Stanley, do hereby certify that all facts, figures, and representations made in this application are true, correct, and consistent with the statement of assurances for these waivers. Furthermore, all applicable statutes, regulations, and procedures; administrative and programmatic requirements; and procedures for fiscal control and maintenance of records will be implemented to ensure proper accountability for the expenditure of funds on this project. All records necessary to substantiate these requirements will be available for review by appropriate state and federal staff. I further certify that all expenditures will be obligated on or after the effective date and prior to the termination date of the project. Disbursements will be reported only as appropriate to this project, and will not be used for matching funds on this or any special project, where prohibited.

Assurances

- The school will be governed by the statutory definition of family engagement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with the definition outlines in section 1116 of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA);
- Involve parents and family members of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how Title I, Part A funds reserved for family engagement are spent;
- Jointly develop/revise with parents and family members a written parent and family engagement policy and distribute it to parents and family members of participating children and make available the parent and family engagement plan to the local community;
- Involve parents and family, in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of programs under this part, including the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy and the joint development of the schoolwide program plan;
- Use the findings of the parent and family engagement plan review to design strategies for more effective family engagement, and to revise, if necessary, the school's parent and family engagement policy;
- If the plan for Title I, Part A, is not satisfactory to the parents and family of participating children, the school will submit parent and family comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to the local educational agency;
- Provide to each parent and family member an individual student report about the performance of their child on the state assessment in at least mathematics, language arts, and reading;
- Provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who has not met applicable state certification and licensure standards; and
- Provide each parent timely notice information regarding their right to request information on the professional qualifications of the student's classroom teachers and paraprofessionals.

1. FAMILY ENGAGEMENT

Describe how the school will involve parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely manner, in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds for family engagement will be used.

SAC, PTO, and the Parental Involvement Committee will be responsible for planning parental involvement events, as well as reviewing and improving our Title I parent involvement events. All faculty and family members are invited to attend SAC meetings. The principal invites community members to join SAC. SAC officers are elected by their peers during the first meeting. All parents and teachers are invited to join PTO. During Open House, we have an area setup in order to encourage parents and family members to join all three committees. Invitations and reminders of meeting dates are also sent via newsletters, fliers, Remind, and Sky alert phone calls. All communication is sent in English and Spanish. Translation services are also provided at all meetings. Parents are asked to help develop our school Parent and Family Engagement Plan. They are invited to planning meetings and all parent input is recorded in the meeting minutes. Parents are also asked to evaluate all activities through a survey that is provided during the event.

2. COORDINATION AND INTEGRATION

Describe how the school will coordinate and integrate family engagement programs and activities that teach parents how to help their children at home, to the extent feasible and appropriate, including but not limited to, other federal programs such as: Head Start, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, public preschool, Title I, Part C, Title II, Title III, Title IV, and Title VI.

7. OTHER ACTIVITIES

Describe the other activities, such as parent resource centers, the school will conduct to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children.

Parental resources will be provided to the guidance counselor, reading coach, and classroom teachers throughout the 2018-2019 school year. These resources will be used to encourage parents and families to support their education. Some resources/activities include Grandparents' Day luncheon, Monthly Student of the Week Luncheons, Dad Take Your Child To School Day, Quarterly Awards Ceremonies, etc. While these activities do not directly impact instruction, they do encourage parents to visit school and help to form a positive relationship.

8. COMMUNICATION

Describe how the school will provide parents of participating children the following:

- Timely information about the Title I programs;
- Description and explanation of the curriculum at the school, the forms of academic assessment used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet;
- If requested by parents, opportunities for regular meetings to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to the education of their children; and
- If the schoolwide program plan under is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school will include submit the parents' comments with the plan that will be made available to the local education agency.

Central Elementary will provide parents timely information through monthly school newsletters written in English and Spanish, weekly classroom newsletters, Remind App, APTT stickers and magnets, flyers and poster for all events, school website, Facebook, school marquee, and automated calls. Documentation will include sign in sheets, meeting logs, meeting agendas, and copies of all meeting notices that are sent home.

9. ACCESSIBILITY

Describe how the school will provide full opportunities for participation in family engagement activities for all parents (including parents with limited English proficiency, disabilities, and migratory children). Include how the school plans to share information related to school and parent programs, meetings, school reports, and other activities in an understandable and uniform format and to the extent practical, in a language parents can understand.

Central Elementary will provide Spanish translators for all parental involvement activities, calls to parents, and written communication. Translation will be provided by our bilingual faculty and staff as well as District provided migrant advocates. Flexible meeting dates and times are offered and provided.
